Hearing On Sugar

BY C. S. ALBERT.

(Special Bulletin Correspondence.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 12.—The special committee of the House that has been investigating the sugar trust resumed its hearing January 8. An announcement was made at the beginning that the work would be hurried to a conclusion. It was desired to have all the facts collected in time for use by the Ways and Means Committee in framing up a revision of the sugar schedule of the Payne-Adrich tariff bill. Hence, all the remaining propositions were given a lick and a promise and the inquiry hastened to an end.

W. G. Cooke, a New York broker, was the most important witness examined. He discussed the sugar situation in Hawaii. He represented himself as having resided in the islands and being largely interested in the sugar industry there. He explained to the committee in detail just how the sugar producers of Hawaii are situated and how they would be affected by changes in the existing Payne-Adrich act.

A number of beet sugar growers from Michigan and other states were heard. They protested against any change which might disastrously affect their interests. At present, they said, the beet industry is fairly prosperous and they desired to retain whatever degree of success had been achieved by development and hard work.

Cost of Refined. Detailed reports from manufacturers of refined sugar on the cost of their output during the recent great advance in prices were received by the committee and incorporated in the record. All the leading refiners answered the committee's request for information.

The committee took up the task of formulating its report January 13. When completed the document will show that the sugar trust, through combination and agreement, maintained the price of refined sugar and that the duty levied on imported material went into the pockets of the refiners. The opinion will be expressed that material reductions can safely be made on present sugar duties without proving detrimental to the beet industry.

Chairman Underwood has repeatedly announced that the Ways and Means Committee has collected its own sugar data and does not require any of the information gathered by the Hawick special committee. The work of framing up a revision measure will be taken up whenever the modified steel schedule is out of the way. The committee had not yet indicated to what extent it will go in proposing lower rates.

The apathy of the Senate and the opposition of President Taft still stand in the way of perfected legislation lowering the sugar duties.

SAYS PEST HAS ATTACKED COTTON

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—The startling statement that the Mediterranean fly had attacked the cotton plant in Hawaii was made to Representative Kahn in a telegram today from O. St. John Gilbert, a resident of Hawaii, now visiting Phoenix, Ariz.

Chief Entomologist Howard of the Department of Agriculture said this was the first case he had ever heard of the fly attacking cotton.

The menace of the fly to cotton will require the co-operation of Southern Congressmen in obtaining appropriations for combating the pest.

AGAIN MADE MAYOR ON HIS 85th BIRTHDAY

BELLEFONTAINE, O., Dec. 30.—When Joseph F. Dennis took the oath of office today and became mayor of Bell Center, this county, the occasion of his 85th birthday anniversary, he claimed the distinction of being the oldest mayor in the United States. He was first elected mayor of the town in 1876, and since then he has held the office three different times for from two to three terms. He says he expects to be a candidate for reelection when his term expires.

Arthur Devlin, one of the New York Giants' third basemen, is having matrimonial troubles for a New Year's greeting. Mrs. Devlin has quit her husband and returned to her father, who is a banker. Devlin has been spoken of as the best third baseman in the National League. He is evidently past that stage now, as Herzog played the position for the Giants in the last world's series.
